

Environment, Quality, Occupational Health & Safety Policy

- We recognize that as an Manufacturer of foundry Consumables, commit ourselves to operate our Plants and Facilities with the utmost Care to Minimize our impact on the environment and on the health and safety of our employees, the community and our customers.
- We will work to provide Quality Products and Services to all our Customers, at all times.
- We consider Compliance to Statutory EQHS and other requirements as the very minimum and commit to go beyond these to Stricter Standards.
- In Pursuit of the Above
- We commit to prevent injury, ill Health & Environment Protection Including Prevention of Pollution by Strict adherence to the most rigorous Standards and good manufacturing Practice.
- We will train all our employees and Contractors to achieve these on a continual basis. We will Strive towards Zero defects in all activities and design and Operate of EQHS System accordingly.
- We are committed to Continually improve the Performance of EQHS in all our business Process and Track this effort through Measurable indicators.
- We will Work with a sense of Responsibility and care and communicate this policy to all Stakeholders and interested parties and involve them in our practices.

C R Jagan
Managing Director

Health and Safety Policy

Purpose

This policy is to ensure and keep everyone safe, healthy and hazard free , prevent ill-health and injury in the workplace.

Scope

This applies to all employees, contractors , visitors and interested parties with in our company premises.

Policy Guidelines

Workplace Safety

- Regular safety checks and hazard identification.
- Proper layout evacuation procedures.
- First aid kits and emergency response training.
- Conduct periodic mock drill and response the same.

Health and Hygiene

- Keep the workplace clean and hygienic.
- Encourage personal hygiene practices, handwash and use of sanitizers.

Equipment and Tools

- Tools and machinery must be in good working order.
- All the Equipment's / machineries are properly guarded.
- Ensure proper earthing for all the Machineries / Equipments.
- Safety gear such as gloves, helmets and goggles where necessary.

Reporting Incidents and Hazards

- Employees must report accidents, injuries or hazards straight away.
- Incident reports will be reviewed to prevent reoccurrence and improve procedures.

Training and Communication

- New employee induction and periodic refresher training.
- Clear signage for safety procedures and exit routes.

Roles and Responsibilities

Management : Provide adequate resource to compliance with all statutory and regulatory requirements , meeting health and safety regulations.

HR and Safety Team : Conduct safety training, audits and incident / accident investigations.

Employees / contractors / visitors : Follow safety procedures, report hazards and wear PPE's where ever required

Enforcement and Compliance

Our organization monitors this policy in accordance with all applicable laws to ensure compliance with legal and other requirements.

Review and Amendments

This policy will be reviewed annually or as on when legal and other requirements changes / updation.

- Esaki Muthu